NOVELny—New York Online Virtual Electronic Library—offers you a way to get the information you need when you need it. Learn what the experts say about new medications and procedures. Window shop without stepping a foot outside your door. Read the latest news about environmental and land-use planning. No more wasting time surfing the Internet. No more annoying pop-ups. No more ads getting between you and what you need to know.

Search engines work well, but NOVELny is better. NOVELny gives you up-to-date facts and figures and expert information from sources that are objective and authoritative. It’s all there, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week—your personal research assistant!

All you have to do is visit www.novelnewyork.org.

Use your local public library card, New York driver license or DMV non-driver ID.

Provided by the New York State Library, NOVELny connects New Yorkers to 21st century information. NOVELny is supported with temporary federal Library Services and Technology Act funds from the Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS). The New York Knowledge Initiative (www.nyki.nysed.gov) is a proposal for permanent state funding for NOVELny.
